DATA PROTECTION STATEMENT

Please read before completing and signing this form

The Trustee processes data relating to you for the purpose of administering and operating the Plan and paying benefits under the Plan. The Trustee is regarded as a Controller under data protection laws in relation to the data processing referred to above.

Full details of the personal data the Trustee holds, how it uses that information and who it shares it with are set out in the Trustee's privacy notice at <https://mypension.dhl.co.uk> (which is updated from time to time).

By signing this form, you are authorising and directing the Trustee to provide information (which may include personal data relating to you) to the recipients listed overleaf. To the extent required, you are giving your consent to the Trustee under data protection legislation to provide any such personal data to the recipients.

If your request involves personal data being shared with a recipient outside the UK and/or the European Economic Area, by signing this form you are also giving your consent to the Trustee under data protection legislation to your personal data being shared in this way.

You acknowledge that, once personal data is transferred by the Trustee to the recipients, the Trustee will no longer have control over how that personal data is used and stored by them. To the extent you deem appropriate, you should satisfy yourself that these recipients will safeguard your personal data. Visit <https://ico.org.uk/your-data-matters> for information about why your personal data is important.

You have the right to withdraw your consent to the Trustee sharing your personal data with the recipients at any time. However, if you do so, this will not affect any data shared with the recipients which took place beforehand.

If you wish to exercise your right to withdraw consent, please contact DHL Pensions.
